Dear Parent or Guardian,

I am writing to the parents of every student in Year 10 whose son/daughter is taking the one year GCSE English Literature course, and studying either 'An Inspector Calls' or 'Macbeth' (or both texts) as shown on the list overleaf.

Last week the English department were sent a sample copy of a new revision resource by CGP Books. This well-established company is currently in the process of producing revision cards for the above two texts. These revision cards are a high quality resource, with questions on one side and answers on the reverse, focusing on characters, themes, key quotations, and so on. They should prove to be an invaluable revision resource.

The 'An Inspector Calls' pack comprises 64 cards, and can be obtained by Uffculme School for £3.00. The full price is £7.99 although parents can currently place orders direct via CGP's website (cgpbooks.co.uk) for £5.00. A postage charge of £2.50 would then be applied, a total of £7.50. The same applies for the 'Macbeth' revision cards: 64 cards, £3.00 via school or £7.50 if ordered direct.

CGP have stated that the 'Inspector Calls' cards will be available for Friday 5th April, the day before the Easter holidays; the 'Macbeth' cards will not be available until Tuesday 7th May, eight days before the Shakespeare examination paper on Wednesday 15th May.

If you would like to order a set of 'An Inspector Calls' revision cards and/or 'Macbeth' revision cards, the deadline for orders is next Tuesday, 2nd April and orders can only be made through ParentPay. ParentPay will remain open on Tuesday evening with the order being placed on Wednesday morning so that, hopefully, the 'An Inspector Calls' packs will arrive before the Easter break.

As mentioned above, the 'Macbeth' packs are not due until Tuesday 7th May, with the examination on that text taking place on Wednesday 15th May. If this deadline is not met, and the packs do not arrive until after the examination, a £3 refund will be made via ParentPay (the school will keep the packs to be sold next year).

Please note that Pupil Premium students will automatically have the packs ordered for them.

If you have any queries about this matter, please contact your son/daughter's English teacher.

Yours sincerely,

Mr C M Robinson
